50X1-HUM

1. During the period from 5 to 10 October 1952, about 25 trains each with 150 axles carrying tanks, trucks, AT guns, mortars and engineer equipment were unloaded at, or passed through, the Dessau (N 52/E 17) railroad station. [] other trains were unloaded in Koethen, Bitterfeld and Rosslau. A bridge was scheduled to be built across the Elbe River near Rosslau.¹
2. During the period from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. on 12 October, numerous columns as well as individual trucks [] were seen on the Dessau-Aken road.² Troops were assembled on either side of the road. A cab driver stated that the road was blocked to civilian traffic at noon on 11 October.
3. [] about 30 tanks, 6 heavy howitzers of about 203-mm caliber and mortars were in the forest in Loedderitz (N 52/D 97) since 3 October.³ [] the troops allegedly planned to move in the direction of Aken on 15 October.⁴
4. On 12 October, a tent camp consisting of 10 tents and housing 4 half-track vehicles, 2 BA-64 armored scout cars and 8 T-34 tanks as well as an undetermined number of trucks was on the east side of the Kuehnau forest. Five M-13 rocket launchers were emplaced 1 km south of Guetrichau (N 52/D 97). Three half-track vehicles were seen 5 km southeast of Zerbst, 1 armored personnel carrier, 4 sidecar motorcycles, 1 radio truck and 2 BA-64 armored scout cars about 2 km northeast of Rias (N 52/D 97). [] troops on the Zerbst-Barby-Guesterglueck road or the Guesterglueck-Wiesenburg (N 52/E 20) railroad line.
5. Personnel and materiel unloaded at the Dessau railroad station during the period from 7 to 9 October included:
